

The Company is pleased to announce that the circular is available on the Company's website which can be found at www.mxoil.com. The text contained in the circular posted to shareholders today that relates specifically to the Placing and Share Consolidation can be found below.